He is the author of four books, most recently Married to Africa Scribner. Lampel maintains, most video directors haven't been able to live up to the expectations that the new medium has generated "What you see too often are disjointed videos full of beautiful images that don't hold up in repeated viewings," he explains "They look good but don't do anything, and look more like a moving picture photo album instead of telling a story. Not to make a three minute slide show with no direction for a song is shirking your responsibility.
