Etxepeteleku, H. One of the current challenges facing the Basque education system and the non-Basque one, also facing Spain, France and the EU in general is how to guarantee a good knowledge of English in a statutory way, in addition to an intermediate level in another optional foreign language by the end of statutory education at the age of 16. As far as the introduction of English is concerned, there have been a variety of experiences, the most prominent being the one conducted by the Ikastolak mainly in the BAC with the introduction of English at the age of 4. Thus, the Ikastolak have shown that not only widespread Basquization and bilingualization are possible through Model-D schooling, but also widespread Englishization simultaneously, offering an education model that goes beyond bilingualism to clear multilingualism following EU directives Garagorri ; Cenoz et al.
