If you are studying full-time, you should expect the workload to be similar to a full-time job. Thank you for presenting someone who is a woman, from a developing country, a minority here, and who speaks with a beautiful accent. To facilitate that part of her life she had a small chalkboard in her room that we could write in hopes that she could at least read them and have some sense of what we were trying to convey, though as memory serves, I am not sure she had the faculties to communicate that ability or not.
